Pour Some Gin For Pele

Roku Gin, Pimm's No.1, Pink Peppercorns
Cucumber & Grapefruit Bitters, Tonic
If you want to protect yourself and your family from lava flow, you have to pay your respects to Pele, the volcano goddess. According to local legends, if you see a beautiful woman with long, flowing hair or an older woman with long, white hair, you must greet her with aloha and offer her help. To really get on her good side, visit her at Halema'uma'u Crater and offer food, flowers, and gin. Yes, gin. Apparently Pele is a fan.
